COMMANDER'S APPRAISAL

CPL ELDRIDGE SURIANTO displays a very positive attitude during his service. He is clear on his work and completed all tasks within specific timeline. He is independent and can communicate well with his peers to overcome technical problems they faced in their daily work. CPL Eldridge is also a team player who is able to motivate his peers and is well-liked by them because of his good personality. He has acted maturely by managing his work and secondary tasking without much supervision. He is also a proud and dedicated member of 6 AMB NSF Council on top of his primary role as a SLWH technician. His good qualities will continue to bring excellence to any organisation he is in.

CPL ELDRIDGE SURIANTO's contribution to national service as a SLWH Technician serves as a role model for many. He is a fast learner and always shows keen interest in his work. His 'never-give-up' attitude was displayed through countless times of extending his normal working hours to get the job completed on time.

His efforts and contributions for the battalion were recognised by many commanders. Notably, he volunteered to help out in organising the National Education tour for the whole battalion despite the heavy workload which shows his fighting spirit and selflessness. 23rd Singapore Artillery, a Partner Unit to 6 AMB, was also grateful for his great support as a SLWH technician where he provided them with professional maintenance support during their outfield training and ARF standby duties whenever called upon.

Aside from his operational role and core duties, he establishes close rapport with his peers and superiors. He shares his experience and technical expertise with his peers and newcomers unselfishly so that everyone can benefit from it. His congenial nature coupled with his good working attitude makes him well liked by everyone. The unit is confident that CPL Eldridge will continue to bring excellence to the SAF in his journey as an NSMan and to any organisation he is a part of. 6 AMB thanks CPL Eldridge for his service, and wishes him success in his future endeavours.
